

Privacy Policy

Sweet Expressions Medispa takes your personal privacy very seriously. We are committed to protecting your personal information. We respect your privacy.

We do not sell client information. We do not disclose client information unless it has been pre-approved by you or, unless required by law. This principle applies to existing, past and prospective clients.

Should you elect to contact us through this web site, you will need to provide us with business information such as a phone number or email address in order that we may contact you. Should you decide to contact us through either this web site or by phone, all information that is provided will be protected.

Sweet Expressions Medispa does, however, reserve the right to perform statistical analysis in order to measure interest in the various pages of our web site. Only consolidated data, not individual data will be used for this purpose.

This web site logs requests to our server. These logs capture computer information and navigation click-stream data such as the originating IP address (e.g. 24.100.48.36) of an agent requesting a URL and the email address of the site visitor, if they have included it in their browser. This data is used in a non-identifiable form for our web site statistics. The logs are archived as raw research material. These logs may not be accessed, opted out of or changed by site visitors.

At the beginning of any initial meeting with a prospective client, Sweet Expressions Medispa may provide you with a signed Statement of Non-Disclosure, which you will retain for your files. This ensures you that all discussions concerning your business and you remain confidential, regardless of whether or not we enter into a business relationship.
